

IN THE MATTER OF)
) Case No. 49S00-0505-DI-236
AMY B. BAKER)

On May 25, 2005, this Court ordered the respondent, Amy B. Baker, to show cause why she should not be immediately suspended from the practice of law in this state due to her failure to respond to the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission's demands for a response to a grievance filed against her. The order required that the respondent show cause in writing within 10 days of service of the order. The Commission has also moved this Court to impose costs against the respondent, pursuant to Ind.Admission and Discipline Rule 23(10)(f)(5), in the amount of $ 518.14.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the respondent, Amy B. Baker, is hereby suspended from the practice of law, effective immediately. Pursuant to Admis.Disc.R. 23(10)(f)(4), the suspension shall continue until: 1) the Executive Secretary of the Disciplinary Commission certifies to the Court that he has cooperated with the investigation; 2) the investigation or any related disciplinary proceedings that may arise from the investigation is concluded; or 3) until further order of this Court.

The Clerk of this Court is directed to forward notice of this order to the respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, at her address as reflected in the Roll of Attorneys. The Clerk of this Court is further directed to issue notice of this order to the Disciplinary Commission.

The Clerk of this Court is directed to give notice of this action pursuant to Admis.Disc.R. 23(3)(d) and to provide to the Clerk of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, to the clerks of each of the United States District Courts and United States Bankruptcy Courts in this state, the respondent's last known address as reflected in the records of the Clerk of this Court.

DONE at Indianapolis, Indiana, this _____ day of July, 2005.
